

" Thank you both very much for a fascinating visit to the Piano Laboratory last week. We were enormously impressed by all that we saw. You will be doing an immeasurable service to future generations if you can unravel some of the mysteries surrounding why it is that some of us succeed in learning to play the piano (well or badly) while others fail so miserably - and if you can improve success rates! "

Anthony Cary CMG
High Commissioner
British High Commissioner