Instructions

You have been learning to play the instrument for some time now. You are probably doing this for various reasons and some of these reasons may be more important than others. I am particularly interested in your reasons for learning to play the instrument.

Here is what we are going to do today. I will present you with different reasons why people learn to play the instrument. What I would like you to do is tell me how much each of these reasons describes what you think or how you feel. When you think about a reason for learning to play the instrument, ask yourself if this reason describes you "perfectly", "not at all" or "somewhere in between these two extremes".

To indicate how much the statements mentioned describes you, all you need to do is choose one of the towers shown below. Circle the number to identify the tower you choose.

- If the reason mentioned describes you perfectly, then pick the highest tower.
- If the reason does not describe you at all, then pick the smallest tower.
- If the reason describes do to some degree in between these two extremes, then pick a tower somewhere in between.

Do you understand what we are going to do? OK. Let's do a couple of examples just to practice. These examples have nothing to do with music but they will help you understand what we are going to do. Are you ready to begin?

Just for practice

I do my classwork _____.

		Not at all like me ←→ Perfectly like me
1	so that the teacher won't yell at me.	$\begin{bmatrix} 2 & 3 & 4 & 5 & 6 \end{bmatrix}$
2	because I want to learn new things.	$\begin{bmatrix} 2 & 3 & 4 & 5 \end{bmatrix} \begin{bmatrix} 6 & 7 \end{bmatrix}$
3	because I will feel guilty if I don't.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7
4	because it's fun.	$\begin{bmatrix} & & & & \\ & & & \\ 1 & & 2 & & 3 \end{bmatrix} \begin{bmatrix} 4 & & 5 \\ & & & \end{bmatrix} \begin{bmatrix} 6 & & 7 \\ & & & \end{bmatrix}$
5	because my parents pay me to go to school.	$\begin{array}{ c c c c c c c c c c c c c c c c c c c$

Very good! Now I am going to give you various reasons why people may learn to play the instrument and I would like you to do exactly the same thing you just did. Tell me how much these reasons describe your own reasons to learn to play the instrument.

Are you ready to continue?
